

Artist Biography

Helen Boydell

Helen is an emerging artist born in Townsville, North Queensland in 1967. Helen's adventures to the islands of the Great Barrier Reef and rainforests of North Queensland inspired her creativity and passion for the marine environment and Australia's native flora and fauna.

After living at Airlie Beach, Helen moved to North Stradbroke Island. She now lives in Cleveland and is a member of the Yurara Art Society where she enjoys portrait drawing, mixed media lessons and socialising with the locals.

Helen enjoys dabbling in all art forms, especially painting seascapes of North Stradbroke Island.
