JULIE GELDARD

Julie Geldard, AFIAP AAPS, and founder of iPhotographMagic, has always been in awe of capturing the magic and cultures of our world.

Photography has been her passion for most of her life, loving to capture the magic of the world creatively, with light, colour or emotion.

Julie has also embraced many years of painting and has adapted her artistic sensibility into her photography, using her camera as a brush combined with creative techniques and postproduction.

Julie has been sharing her passion with iPhotographMagic photographic tours, for over 10 years, to countries with some of the best photographic opportunities and subjects for her tour participants.

This collection of photographic art is a reflection of the New World of Photography, and a tribute to the create talents and passionate photographers who share Julie's passion.
